The reason bidder.

Both the great parties are guilty of this of this inquiry was that all of the session disgrace to the state and the only reason employes of the House were cut off with the republicans do not engage in it to a expiration of this session. When the greater extent this year is because they are unable to raise the cash. If the republicans are ever able to raise a campaign fund stopped short, and there was no longer unequal to that raised annually by the demo-crats they will make things lively here, and Maryland will be a doubtful state. The price of votes this year in the city will be from $2 to $5, while in the doubtful counties it ranges from $5 to $20. I have known instances in the eastern shore counties where as high as $50 has been paid colored tiles and to put things generally for a single vote in a closely contested elec-tion, and on one occasion I was present and saw an old white man and his two sons in order which the House has left in dissaw an old white man and his two sons auction off their votes to the highest bidder, the republican worker and the democratic worker bidding against each other until the price was run up to $15 a vote, when the republican ceased bidding and the democrat secured the three votes, which were duly cast for democratic candidates, after which the men were paid the money. Such performances are usual in all the close counties in Maryland every year, and are looked upon as a matter of course. The contests are not based on principle—they are merely matters of cold cash, and the longest purse wins. In the close counties, if the republicans have plenty of money, they will win, that is unless the democrats have a greater plenty of money. Of course, mittee on appropriations pledged himself order from the day before, are on the sesin counties where the majorities either way are large very little cash is used, except in factional contests at primary elections. ing in order during the recess, and the employes will have to work on faith until Congress reconvenes. It is understood that the Chinese minister has assured the Secretary of State that he will use his best endeavors to induce his countrymen living in the United States to comply with the amended Chinese act extending the time of registration, and that there will be no further trouble on that score. The authority of discharge thus conferred does not apply to Chinamen convicted of felony or ployed and their work undone for the next under, the original Geary act. The authority of discharge thus conferred does not apply to Chinamen convicted of felony or being in this country in violation of law. It is estimated that probably 100 Chinamen have been sentenced to deportation who will be released, nearly all of these being on the Pacific coast.

The Harvey Propers The Harvey Process.

The report that the Harvey process of treating steel armor plates for naval vessels is to be abandoned is not founded on fact. It has been alleged that this promise in the fact of the members of the Hotse termed little less than a deliberate robbery of the treasury, amounting to about $22,000. Mr. Cockrell directly, and the Senate under his leadership, are held by Representatives responsible for this, and it is possible that the milk in the cockern than yield to what the little less than a deliberate robbery of the treasury, amounting to about $22,000. fact. It has been alleged that this process for making the plates invulnerable to projectiles made them so hard that the bolts necessary to keep them in place could not be driven through them. A practical test has shown that the Harvey process will not prevent the plates from being properly and securely fixed in position. Bolts will be driven from the interior of the frame into the backs of the plates. In some cases, as in barbette construction, the Harare in favor of it.

would be benefited by this appropriation are in favor of it.

The service alleged to have been rendered was during the Fifty-first Congress. There was then no authority of law for the employment of the clerks during that month, and the House, with Mr. Cannon, republican, chairman of the committee on appropriations, refused to authorize their employment. It was impossible to get authority for it even by a joint resolution, and they were employed, or rather their employment was authorized by a simple resolution of the Senate, which could carry no appropriation for their pay. At the second session of the Fifty-first Congress the appropriation was refused.

The fight over this question was what cases, as in barbette construction, the Har-veyized surface will be omitted from a nar-row rim at top and bottom, where it is necessary to drive bolts. The process will not be abandoned, and it will not interfere James G. Jester, real estate broker, has sold for Norma W. Wills and Walter H. Wills, to Neil F. Graham, M. appropriation was refused.

The fight over this question was what caused the failure of the appropriation bill, but it is estimated that assistance which was potent in bringing about this result came from some who were not loath to embarrass Secretary Carlisle by leaving him without provisions for the necessary daily expenses of the government which were carried in the bill.
